Child Writes

The Child Writes Fund (ABN 16 615 584 480) empowers children to navigate their future through story. Funds raised facilitate literacy programs (mentoring children to create their own picture book) for children in rural and regional areas. Funds will also contribute to the development and distribution of an app to gift the Child Writes library (consisting of the 360+ titles already written and illustrated by primary school aged children) to locations where children are in crisis. The Child Writes Fund also supports International Read to Me Day, March 19th, an awareness campaign focused on the importance of reading to children regularly.
